Poetry.

From the Atlantic Monthly. THE PLAYMATE. BY FENG. WESTIER.

The pines were dark on Rameth hill, Their sangs were not and low; he become in the swe t Nay wind Were falling like the incw.

The blussoms drifted at our fact. The organic birds sing clear; The sacrest and the modest dry

For, more to me than birds or flowe s. And took with her the laughing spring,

The maste and the bloom the bleed the lips of bith and kin, She laid her hand in mine; What mere would ask the bashful boy

Who had her father's kine. The left us in the Ulcom of May The constant years teld o'er. Their seas on with as except May morns,

But she came back no more I wask, wi havindous feet, the round

Or uneventful yours;

the lives where all the golden year.

Her summer rescs blow;

The on by children of the sun Refere her come and go-There happy with her jewelled hands Sheam subs her sliken gown,— No more the homespan lay wherein I should the walcuts it was

The wild grapes wait us by the brook The brown note on the hill, And still the May-day flowers make sweet

The word of Pollymill The littles blessess in the pend, The hi d builds in the bue The dark pines sing on Bau, th hill

The slaw song of the rea. I wanter if the thinks of them. And how the old time seems, --If our the piner of Ramoth wood,

Are sounding in her dreams. I see her face, I hear her voice Does she remember mine? And what to her it now the boy

Who fiel her lather a kine? What eares she that the origins build For other eyes than ones, That other hands with nuts are filled,

And other Japon to the Soune? O playmate in the golden time ! The fringing violets blossom yet.

The old trees o'er it lame The winds so sweet with birch and fern A sweater memory blow; And there is spring the secries sing

The song of long ago. And still the place of Ramoth wood

Miscellany.

The Lattery Ticket.

AND THE PRIZE IT DREW. BY MARTHA IL DITC.

(From "Leisure Moments."]

What makes you so dolorous of late, Roland ?" remarked a dark-eyed sister, as the young man alluded to entered the parior continued, tastening her dark eyes upon him, or, the meadow more beautifully carpeted with soft, groon grass, nor the peach trees fuller of gay blossoms, than now, Then way this soubreness, it I may be allowed the of the epithet, of your deportment?" When she concluded, Roland looked up as exharting his hearers to repentance, and inquired, in a corresponding tone-· Have you got through?

"Torough? No. 1 can give you a whole lecture, if you wish ; how do you like the tone of my remarks 9" "I have nothing in particular to say, cither pro or con, because they were anticipated. You charge me with being gloomy, and I with equal propriety, can retert by calling you queralous; because, if I am merry and obilant, I am foulish in your opinion and estimation, and when I am thoughtful and serious, you say I am as doleful as a funeral train. Now, is this not true, sister ?" "I must, like the culprit at the bar of justice, plead guilty as to part, while to the remainder I will plead the general answer; whereby I controvert each allegation, and leny the same." Of a verity, Amelia, I should advise you to enter some lawyer's office, and commence reading Backstone or Kent, as you quote lecal phrasedogy as fluently as an infant does he Hebrew tangue," said Roland laughing-Avast to your joking, especially at the present time, us I wish to learn the cause of your late conduct." There it is, again ; when I do make a pleasant remark, you repudiate it immediately; but I don't feel disposed to enter into any altercation with you; and will, as you appear to be so anxious to learn it, tell you why I have been somewhat thoughtful for "Now you begin to talk as a brother should; and, by all means, go on." "To gratify your womanly currosity, then.

I was just ruminating over what I have lately done, and-

He drooped his head and paused, as though the thought was terrible, and too painful to She saw with astonishment this singular manœuvre, and said in an agitated manner Go on, brother; tell me all ' You surely have not committed a mur-The remainder of the word was uttered in an inaudible whisper. After sighing nervously, he raised his head

" No, 'Melia; I have not committed any thing that is strictly criminal, other than in a moral point of vi w, and even then I might be exenerated." You have excited my curiosity to its highest pitch; so please tell me about the matter, so that, if necessary, I can aid you ; and if it is so that it will not admit of aid, tented and as happy as two earthly mortals that I can sympathize with you." Thank you sister for your kindness, but possibly can be.

I do amazingly hate to tell you any thing at all concerning it, as it in no wise relates to you ; and furthermore, I am sorry thaf I have been the unhappy means of arousing your curiosity.

"Oh, plague take you, brother, for thus tormenting me. I never thought you were so cruel. Pray tell me all, as you have told Morgan, Muskingham, Coshocton, Morrow foreign lands, $12,000; all other expenses, me a part. Well, I have taken a----

What, brother, what?" she eagerly asked, interrupting him. Do not parait yourself to become so excited; I have done nothing so very out-remain silent till you get through.

"You appear very apprehensive and mistrustful, lest I should have done that best she could. " To commence anew, I have lately taken a classed in a lottery which has caused all this (so called) 'erriousness.'"

"I am sincerely sorry, Roland, that you have been again allured from the path of strict integrity, by the tempting indo held out by these lotteries. Don't you reremember you promised me, not long ago. that you would never rick any more in these fraudulent concerns? I should think, too. that your experience in that business was sufficient to steel your heart against thom all-You know the manner in which they are nothing more or less than a fraud or an imposition, where the community is annually ized from it? Why, sir, nothing, aside from an empty purse and a barning anxiety to try a prize or another blank, let it be the last one. Hearken to the advice of a sister, and you will never fill a suicide's grave," swallow all the orthodox morality that you can preach; but this is quite immaterial, as not been confident of securing a prize. Inamount Ned Harris offered me yesterday." "So you choose to make him your confilant rather than your sister ! way than to keep it a going."

"How provoking you are this morning! can. Now that you have taken a chance in a lottery, please inform me when you expect to lar lottery I have procured the chance in, I will tell you something as to the time of its seing drawn. I think in about a month. That I shall get a prize, rest assured ; but I must new fulfil an engagement previously brothers a e," mused Amelia, after her broth i Constitution were involved in the contest between the had quitted her presence. "No coubt her had two raising parties. They differed as the two raising parties." porce of paper - and as working as as it is from of constitutional principles. (Applanes) small—to ag tate my technics a particle. No. | the map change of a particular that he had prepried shouldn't have said a word about his looks that it I supposed a mething more radical in effect was in his head.

"Well, well, see continued after a moment's pause, it ings have arrived at a pretty pass, when a brother can't ar mon't irust his sister. I'm sare I don't care anything about his chance, other than I wish to would lose, just because he easis such insinations upon the ladies. Talk about a woman's not being able to keep a recret, when he knows I kept one for him a world work; and when I did tell it, it was purely said to have appliance.)

"Unon parties. For the hermanicus ice mocraze he would present the Virginia resolution of 119x-99, with two resolutions of lavery—one to keep it out the Continuences the Newty—one to keep it out the two resolutions of the previous questions asked afterwards. Second for the interpretations along with his chance, other than I wish to monifications, in regard to his large with the monifications and outside that all the pretty wives might be kered, and only the old witches borned (Great Laughter). For the Constitution as it is, and the Union naw and forever. (Great applause.) week ; and when I did tell it, it was purely and forerer. (Grew applause.) the possessor of a secret that he would like

"Bleak House," which possessed the "sov-ereign balm" sought for, because in less to break up and go home.

erive and awe-inspiring as a deacon when lady of his acquaintance, to whom he had al-

not deign to tell or even presume the nature of their conversation, being but a nova e yet n such matters. until a month had disappeared, when Roland entered his sister's spartment, one evening, and said, in a meaning tone-"There, sister, is the tteket of which I spoke, some time since. On receiving it she hastily glanced at it.

and found it to be a wedding card. "Oh, you cruel wretch, you "" she ex- od the higher law in the rural districts. laimed, in well affected astonishment " to thus fool me.'

on tried to fool yoursell."

means just what it says; and now that you | the country at large. have learned which Littery I purchased the chance in, will you tell me whether or no you ceem my course and selection a judicious one, taking into consideration the fact that I was so sure of getting a prize. biblical language' . Thou hast done well, for a better girl never smiled over a cook-stove than Sarah Kayton. While I dis approve of your having kept all knowledge of your coursthip from me, I must say that guinst all lotteries?

same opinion of money latteries now that I did then.

A month afterward, if you had entered a in the village of N-, you might have been a witness to a practical demonstration gramme; and substantially it was carried out. of "love in a cottage."

There dwelt Roland and Sarah, as con-distinctly heard. Near McConnellsville The Rev. Dr. Riddle, of Jersey City, moved, several boys observed a huge stone descend to and W. E. Dodge, E-q., of New York, seethe earth, which they averred looked like a | onded the following resolution red ball leaving a line of smoke in its wake. A gentleman walking in his field, near New of which has now been read, he adopted, and pub-Concord, heard a terrific crash like thunder. Hished under the direction of the Executive Com-"I was too fast, Roland; but will now which lasted half a minute, and then plainty mittee; and that the Society unite in expressing saw a large body descending through the air in an angling direction, with a velocity As I was saying, I have taken in an angling direction, with a velocity Nobody's life I hope; have you, brothmuch greater than it could have attained by its own momentum. Going to the spot where it touched the ground, he found a rock weighing over fifty pounds, embedded in the which is wrong; so much se, in fact, as to earth a depth of two feet. The phenomenon rupting me while I relate that which gives were found nearly fifty miles apart, although R. L., be elected Vice President, instead of spect to the crowning guilt of oppression in seems to be unprecedented. These stones Perceiving that her eagerness had led her | in one or two instances the doors bursted | and Hop. L. Bradish, D. Lord, and M. A. R. | with the mower filleth not his seythe, nor he too far, she slightly bit her lips and requested open. It occasioned a great deal of consternhim to tell his story, and she would "do the ation in that section of the country, as well it might .- Columbus Statesman.

FRIDAY MORNING, M Y 18, 1860.

BALTIMORE NOMINATIONS.

The Baltimore Convention, No. 1, has conducted, and that a prize scarce ever feaves | made quick work with its business, in which the first who own the lottery. They are it showed more good sense than the Charleston Convention did. That spent eight days rathed of many thousands of dollars. You in trying to make Platforms, and got no have purchased ticket after ticket, and pick- Candidates at all. The Baltimore Convention age after package, and what have you real | determines to have no platform at all-practically speaking. Its candidates may be again, only to lose more. If you have purchased another ticket, whether you draw blind-folded, and standing on a smooth round stone,-indicating, plainly enough, that she did not know herself what she "St. Peter, St. John, St. Michael, and St. | was going to do, and that nobody could | Dominic, deliver me from being obliged to tell which way her favors were to fall. The Constitution and the Laws for a Platform ! my distermination is concluded, and it pre- They might as well have taken Webster's eisely corresponds with your advice. I should spelling book to indicate what policy they not have purchased this last chance had I had in view. As for their candidates—there deed, I am so sure of it that I would not set | is quite a difference between them. Bill has my chance for a thousand pounds, which | some positive elements in him; Everett has none at all, unless political timidity and carpet rhetoric are to be freekoned such. The "Ha! ha! 'Melia, I wonder if you think | ticket can only draw those voters who other-I could trust you with a secret of mine, with | wise would not vote at all, or who, if they did, any degree of certainty that you would re- would, while bewailing the evils of slavery, this it? I never yet came in contact with a be sure to vote so as to help the side of those

The Baltimore Union Convention had some "As you haven't asked me which partient brief talk on platforms-what, declarations

Mn Fann. W. Guavson, of Pa. thought when he one here they had a more important work than that I shall get a price, rest assured, but I too Presidency. They had to organize a great nation of party, and when it triamphed be winted to do so upon principles. He could not agree to take any man, no matter what his ante elent, who and not stand fairly on the platform of recognited Publishing Committee, would be pleasing to the resolutions that Law Just be resolved to the resolution of the resolutions that Law Just be resolved to the resolution of the resolutions that the resolution of the r "What a diffident set of beings these principles. The interpretation and meaning of the she Sacrate, rottless a c." muscal Amelia after her border in Constitution were involved in the contest between 1 of social thinks my curiosity is excited to the highest to slavery to the Territories. (Hisso.) He was degree, and by his conduct be appears do-to-mined to keep it there; but I am not be head was that this Union party should ignore that goldeness and sound morality," which to dish crough to permit such a small matter that disturbing issue. Therefore before they that disturbing issue that the union party should place themselves on a plat-or distribute to subserve those "interests of that disturbing issue. Therefore before they that disturbing issue that the union party should place themselves on a plat-or distribute to subserve those "interests of that disturbing issue themselves on a plat-or distribute to subserve those "interests of the society, and accidental. But never mind, I may yet be The superlative wit of Hen Lustin Coonne. to know, when I will retain to this conduct | considering the occasion, cumout full to be ereign balan" sought for, because in less than ten minutes she was wandering in the fairy realises of dreamland.

Roland, in the meantine, sauntered down the street, and called upon a certain young lady of his acquaintance, to whom he had already applied the endearing epithet of "my dear Sarah"," and he might have changed it a fittle, with equal propriety, and read thus:

—"my intended."

to break up and go home.

Mr. Swirztra of Miss. said his State wanted and his state wanted and his state wanted are discussed in the resisted?

This is the question which meets up to day. And my own resolution is taken—tak, and any own resolution is taken—tak, and my own resolution which meets up to two points. Uthe F wind with a properties of the resisted?

Convention before it was two points. Uthe F wind with a properties of the resisted?

This is the question which meets up to day. And my own resolution is taken—tak, and my own resolution is taken—tak. In the words of the great appelled. The resisted?

This is the question which meets up to day. And my own resolution is taken—tak. In the resisted?

This is the question which meets up to day. And my own resolution is taken—tak. In the resisted?

This is the question which meets up to day. And my own resolution is taken—tak. In the resisted?

The read appelled to property and it is embalished in the great appelled to the resisted?

The resisted?

The read appear and it is embalished in the great appelled to the resisted?

The read appear and it is embalished in the great appelled to be read appear and it is embalished.

The resisted?

The read appear and it is embalished in the great app A pleasant hour or an hour very pleasant. North and another at the South. The true | Trainpled upon. | A second reason for passing these resolu-A resid reason for passing the finance of the part of the proper of the society, when he journeyed on down the society, when he journeyed the society of the Time passed caward as rapidly as usual, ton the Democracy literally denounced their are properly inherent in the society as a vored the Fugitive Slave Law, and addressed as an electrosynary institution exhausted its as real, or another ruse of yours. Is it or is had weight on the Convention, and cannot This speech was recognized as a semi-official I don't know whether to constructhis lates to politics, that his remarks must have occasion, the continent of the managers. not a ruse?"

I am perfectly honest in this t the card fall of an appreciation at their true value by been scattered through the land.

CIETY

Among the Anniversary Meetings of Soci-"Yes, with all sincerity. I can say, in clies held in New York City during the week, Tract Society, are constituted a body corpothat of the American Tract Society, of New Trate by the name of the American Tract Soyour coursthip from me, I must say that control of a set of men who were resolutely have met as such to-day. The officers of the the meeting was disgracefully turbulent and | makes its own constitution and can repeal is. No, not a particle. When I made that disorderly. The rulings of the president or define it. By its charter it is restricted lotteries, and never even thought of what the were against established modes of proceeding, only to "religious publications." old poet and when he sung, 'Marriage in a and a long legal argument on the side lottery.' No, no, brother; I entertain the of the officers, was followed by a demand bation of all evangelical Christians." for the previous question, by the man who meaning of this phrase has been disputed; pair dilapidations. d then.

Well, I concur with you, and shall always remember that sage advice you gave was shut off. This year, there was a more age to the sage advice you gave was shut off. This year, there was a more rectorally and had made it D. Lord, Esq., so that all reply it from the perversion of a modern gloss, and call Advertiser says ways remember that sage advice you gave was shut off. This year, there was a more restore it to its original and historical signifiorderly demounor; but the shutting off of cance.

and reverses have crossed his threshold, yet he has never had occasion to regret the procuring of his last "Lattery Ticket, nor the paire it does not be treasury, $380,762 63. Expended:

The third and remaining reason which has paire it does not be treasury. manufacturing and issuing $220,958 67;

Resolved, That the Annual Report, on abstract

The resolution was adopted. Mr. Holden moved that the officers of the without humiliation, and I believe that there Society for the past year be re-elected with are few agencies among us more demoralizing rupting me while I relate that which gives you so much uneasiness and dissatisfaction. If you will endeavor to keep as quiet as you conveniently can, I will proceed."

were found nearly tifty miles apart, although the places apart, although the places our land. O, call not that Evangelical Christianity.

R. I., be elected Vice President, instead of our land. O, call not that Evangelical Christianity.

Rev. Dr. Wayland, who has declined replaced to the crowning guilt of oppression in our land. O, call not that Evangelical Christianity.

Like the grass on the housetops, whereminions.

Adopted.

Burlington Irre

The Rev. Mr. Wolcott, of Chicago, off red | before it groweth me the following resolutions:

Wherens, This Society, in 1857, on recommendaed in its publications, and this declaration still stands in full force, therefore-

Therens, This Society, at its last annual meeting, any form," and whereas, during the past year evidence has accumulated, until the fact has be-

Resolved, That the publication, or re-publication, rith accumulated weight; and-

Mr. Wolcott then said, I frankly acknowllge that I have three reasons for offering umblest member of this Society, by asserting an is implied in the word vindicate.

on, but it is proper that I should add that in | ing as they that watch for the morning. circular letter, prepared by one of the secre- And to-day in this commercial city, this aries (Mr. Eastman), published and distrib- centre and conflatuce of a children conservaed with funds which the chareles have | tism, I stand in the presence of an ansympa ntributed for the diffusion of an evangelical | thising majority, sustained and cheered terature, I have been referred to by name, the remembered words of one of my early with the expressed intimation that I had teachers - Have faith in truth, even a making disturbance. This ungenerous tomakers rolls up neasily and imposingly, but who work directly for it as hard as they and unworthy imputation, this disparagement if atsout on the shore and slides back into my motives and my character, widely err- the sands of oblivion. But a true opinion is plated through their official channels, is the the occu, itself, calm in its rest, chronal in malty of a conscientious fidelity to my its power. And though the night come avietions of truth and duty; it is the down to well it for a time. It is still there, enalty of an honest dissent from the man- | beating on with the same victorious pulse. gers of this society, or rather of the calm, and waiting for the day to come bilication of a suitable tract against the awarded to Rev. Mr. Lea, who said, have Erads which might be approved by the Mr. President. I move an unacralise with conscious integrity; I offered it in the the opening of therman ingresion misons upon spirit of Christian in deration, with a sin the Sabhata terratory to me has and the Garjel

continued, lastening her dark eyes apon him, while a mischaevous suite lingered on her dark eyes apon him, while a mischaevous suite lingered on her dark eyes apon him, while a mischaevous suite lingered on her dark eyes apon him, while a mischaevous suite lingered on her dark eyes apon him, while a mischaevous suite lingered on her dark eyes apon him, while a mischaevous suite lingered on her dark eyes apon him, while a mischaevous suite lingered on her dark eyes apon him, while a mischaevous suite lingered on her dark eyes apon him, while a mischaevous suite lingered on her dark eyes apon him, while a mischaevous suite lingered on her dark eyes apon him, while a mischaevous suite lingered on her dark eyes apon him, while a mischaevous suite lingered on her dark eyes apon him, while a mischaevous suite lingered on her dark eyes apon him, while a mischaevous suite lingered on her dark eyes apon him, while a mischaevous suite lingered on her dark eyes apon him, while a mischaevous suite lingered on her dark eyes apon him, while a mischaevous suite lingered on her dark eyes apon him, while the mischaevous suite lingered on her dark eyes apon him, while the mischaevous suite lingered on her dark eyes apon him, while the mischaevous suite lingered on her dark eyes apon him, which thus still strip to be approached that that was approached. After this relieving the manual good tate. Mr. Swax of Maryland said good tate. Mr. Swax of Maryl

Ar. Erastus Brooks is so well known as a plea paid to his opponents the graculal com-

These resulutions are presented as a chal- Scale on the subject. enge and a contradiction to that sophism. NEW YORK AMERICAN TRACT SO. They recognize the fact that the charter, from guage of reproach and denunciation, but I am persuaded that the Society needs the cial bankruptey. He had but that day moral tonic of such resolutions as these.

The strength of our opposition to its present administration is drawn from the low moral positton which it occupies, bearing no rebuke. I can never think of that position

Wetmore be also elected Vice Presidents. that bindesh sheaves his bosom would to caven that humanity like that might with e-

that the purpose avowed, two years ago, by tion of the committee of fi-teen, adopted a resonal leading opposer of your present policy, and grow out of the existence of slavery, as well as those moral evils and vices which it is known to | end, and if called away before it was decided, promote, undoubtedly do fall within the province | would leave it as a legacy to those who should of this Society, and can and ought to be discussand mextinguishable, in the breasts of all Resolved, That the reasons which urge to such who are associated with him in this direction also remain, and now pression the society pressible conflict. "We are not enemies of scussion also remain, and now press on the society the Iract Society. Heaven forbid! To us, as to you, it is consecrated by tendeclared that "it has no doubt in relation to the | der and hullowed memories. We know that | ing it is not, did not succeed. in of the African Slave Trade, or the great it has done a great and good work in the In the House, Mr. Bingham of Ohio, wickedness of reviving that iniquitous system in past, and we trust that it is destined to don (Rep.) from the Committee on the Judiciary, greater and a better work in the future. But we also believe that it now accupies a fulse traffic has been re-opened by vessels sailing from power. And God hoping us, we will not New Mexico, which establish country. est until it has been redeemed and recovered. The e resolutions may be voted down, f suitable tracts, setting forth the iniquity of the ed. There resolutions may be voted down.

Arrivan Slave Tradii, would meet the approbation this year, as similar resolutions were voted down last year. And your Secretary, it he can find no betber use for sacred funds, may send out his ese resolutions. The first is, to vindicate official circulars, pronouncing an oracular he freedom of debate, and the rights of the | judgment on our motives, and affixing any stigma which he pleases to our names. It by personal right to a fair participation in | shall not down us nor discourage us. The regular deliberations. And I have no wish | present p bey cannot last forever; it is demake any forther reference to the disor- titute of mor divig r, and becoming weaker. erly proceedings of the last annual meeting, year by year. Each anniversary brings as th have imposed this obligation upon me, percept by nearer to the assarament of I regret the necessity of any personal allu- with patience, and courage and hope, watch-

d christian expression of that opinion. It | Several members, amid a usederable conthe punishment of that presumption which of me to offer, at the last meeting, a resoluon tracking the slave-trade, that the uddressing the President, but the floor was

1 offered that resolution in good faith and | Resolver, That in the spinors of that Society

the country are heart-sick and headsick at controlling agency. A labored attempt and informed as above and, it did not ust of which we spoke not long since, came to others a Dutch look. the country are heart-sick and hearistex at was made, at the last meeting, to metge in the country are heart-sick and hearistex at was made, at the last meeting, to metge in the country residence in Connecticut, its executive committee the functions which and last week, and under charge of G. The Vice Governor, to use a lamiliar expression, might be called a folly, fat Dutch.

His death was very sudden. He returned to the fourth of the country residence in Connecticut, its executive committee the functions which and last week, and under charge of G. The Vice Governor, to use a lamiliar expression, might be called a folly, fat Dutch. had adjourned without making any nomin- S Bl dgett Esq., of the Town Committee, it Pression, might be called a 'jolly, fat Dutch ation? It certainly could have put in just was spread to the breeze for a few minutes much better than a glass of Heidsick or apparently in good health. In conversation A learned lawyer of this city put forth an one line of so exteresting a matter to its reahad two class second conservative, who fast class second conservative, which is so expected to the conservative conservative, which is so expected to the conservative conservative.

unconstit tional. The author of the novel Liverpool the 28th alt., arrived at New York is a fine piece of bunting, fifty feet by was doing all on their power to stop the on, Mass.

oreafter become members of the American his term at Oxford, and will not probably ford.

We are not, as a society, in the haggard | Finance, Baron de Bruck, seems to have the army peculation which had pushed Gen. The third and remaining reason which has Eynatten to prison and to suicide. But it trust he will. prompted me to offer these resolutions, is the does not appear efficially that he was either accessity of correcting the present policy of concerned in the peculations, or that he A Course of Huge Mergons as Onto.—In Colporage, 79,616 20; colporage agoncies and depositories, $29,497 90; cash for the Society, and elevating it to a more scripthe Society, and elevating it to a more scripcies and depositories, $29,497 90; cash for tural standard. I will not dwell upon this reported, that he died of apoplexy, and that point which has been so often and so forcibly his death is due to the immense labor reurged, nor have I any wish to use the lan- quire lin supporting the financial affairs of an old monarchy falling into runss and finansent in his resignation to the Emperor.

> ANOTHER FUGITIVE BY THE S. R. SPAULthanks to God for the divice blessing which has faithful testimony against gigantic forms of bing.—It seems from further accounts in the attended its labors in this country and in foreign social and national iniquity, timid and dumb lands during its whole history.
>
> Boston papers that Blocker was not the only in the presence of sins which it is bound to "colored pusson" on board the steamer which bore the Democratic delegates from Charleston to Boston. Another, who said the following exceptions: Rev. Dr. B. Sears, in their influence than this professedly christian name was Norris, made a through passage President of Brown University, Providence, tian policy of silence and suppression in rehis name was Norris, made a through passage

CONGRESSIONAL.

Two or three votes taken in Congress on the 10th inst., are quite significant. In the copy from the New York Herald: Let me say, in conclusion, Mr. President, Senate the Homestead bill was passed by a that the House would amend it in those objectionable points. 44 votes were given for the bill and only 8 against it. An effort to have its title altered so as to make it purport looked upon by them as almost sacred. It is the next Subbath evening. His fellow memto be a graduation bill, as it really is, instead of a homestead bill, which properly speak-

> (Rep.) from the Committee on the Judiciary, covered. Around this box is a light frame, it was supposed. At last the meetings were reported a bill to declare null and void all and when carried is borne on the backs of turned to a week day evening, and lo! there legalize involuntary servitude, except for crime. He moved the previous question on each, one $13,400, one $9,000, $15,000, have so long deprived them of his company. its passage. After considerable talk pro and and some $4,000 of silver, supposed to be Did he let that go as the reason? "Not buscon, Mr. Bingham said he was willing to that of their own money. Their money incomengagements hindered me," replied he, postpone the consideration of the bill for dollars and American half-dollars, stamped devoted to religious uses by me." He then two weeks. Mr. Vallandigham of Ohio, with the Japanese mark-an arrangement told them he had been brought up in a land (Dem.) said, "let us vote on it now." Mr. | made by Commissioner Harris. Foreign | where the Sabbath was strictly observed, and Bingham said if the Democratic side was ready to vote on the bill, then he was. The answer was "agreed," "agreed," "vote, silver for American gold, which Purser Dovote." The main question was ordered. The result was, the bill was passed, 97 to

> The House being in Committee of the Whole, on Mr. Morrill's Tariff bill, it was agreed to with slight modifications not affacting its general principles. Ayes 89, nocs 37. It was then reported to the House. Same attempt at further amendment failed. astonish our people when they see them. It Petrit moved to table the bill. Dis- They have a beautiful specimen of Sharp's management and instruction of such schools. agreed to by 63 against 102. The bill was rifle, one of their own manufacture; also one then passed by a strong vote. Ayes 105, noes 64, an evidence of its general merit. Its passage by the Senate is regarded as im-

ARRIVAL OF THE JAPANESE.-The U. S. steam (rigate, Rouncke, from Aspinwall, arrived at Sandy Hock Wednesday evening, tridge, but has to be cocked by the thumb. larving on board the Japanese embassy-con- The Japanese rifle can be cocked or not on sisting in all of 71 persons. Orders from the cutting off the cartridge, according to will. Secretary of the Navy were put on board the The barrel is beautifully rifled, and is a facnames, will be sure that a surgeon is within ing sketches of every thing they see. They mrated; she said she would not go with him call in case a dislocation of jaw should ensue. generally lie stretched out full length on deck from nor mistress—that she loved her mis-

1. Sunga-bili-ways-Kami, Chi f Ambassador, T. Mungaas-Awagi no Kami, Asiist-Am-

thing was in order to hoist it when the Heidsick or shorry it hard pressed, thirty, well worthy the handsome pole that

Cuba, and had opened negotiations with necticut re-elected, on the 10th inst., Hon. LAFAYETTE S. FOSTER AS U. S. Senator from Las been variously credited to the Buffalo 170 works. The last work from his pen was that State. Mr. Foster is a Republican of which we derive all our powers therein name. Wales would still for Canada about the end acknowledged ability. The democratic attempting to settle the question of paterwhich we derive all our powers therein many of April is incorrect. He will first complete candidate was Hon. W. W. Eaton of Hart-

SINGULAR .- Coming back to our office after The London Panes publishes a letter from a brief absonce Saturday, we found a most Sebastopol stating that the English graves singular object lying upon our table. It was ou have made a good selection.

So you have released in a measure, and bent on allowing no open and fair discussion secrety are merely its servants; they cannot there had been violated, and that the remains oval in shape, measuring two inches and a don't cherish such feelings of animosity as on its doings and peculiar policy. Last year legally be its masters. The stream does not of Commander Hammett were entirely exrun higher than the fountain. The Society humed and his bleaching in the sun. The and five eighths in its longest; composed exletter subgizes the conduct of Col Gowen ternally of a calcareous substance of a dirty In its (the American contractor at Schastopol) for white color, smooth, with the exception of a constitution it has seen fit to add the restrict- the expense and trouble he has voluntarily few wrinkles at one end; and very much ive clause calculated to meet the the appro incurred to keep cometeries in order and to resembling, in fact, a huge egg. A very curious fact about it is, that on it may be

How it came on our table, we cannot say. us. The curse of all impotency is not thus same office, the Prince Schwartzenburg and to have laid such an egg, if egg it is, and we Rsv. Mr. Eastman read a summary of the upon us And if there were no other reason the Count Stadion, both died suddenly, and upon us And if there were no other reason the Count Stadion, both died suddenly, and have not yet learned that any one has seen business for the year.

It appears that the Society has received right of the society to discuss, and decide was supposed, in the labors of the office. within the year: in donations and legacies, upon, its own principles and measures, had. At first it was reported that M. de Bruck object may be seen at our office; and if Dew-Although many years have since passed.

Although many years have since passed.

Althou Calhoun Benham has been appointed United States District Attorney for Cali-> ham was the second of Terry, who killed Broderick. It is the custom of the duel for the second to examine the person of his principal's opponent to see that he wears no coat of mail or similar obstruction to the bullet. This is usually a mere form. Broderick's second just touched Terry, bowed and withfornia, vice P. Della Torre, resigned. Ben-

large majority. Several of those who voted get an English copy of the treaty, signed by youngest members, soon became a great for it expressed themselves opposed to some inal was burnt in the great fire at Jeddo two ful conversation won him many friends, and of its provisions; but voted for it in the hope years ago. The copy in Japanese was saved. receiving as much enjoyment as he gave, he that the House would amend it in those ob. This they bring with them, and a copy of it was always punctually present. (not signed), and a letter from the Tycona On one occasion, however, the meeting to the President.

called the 'treaty box,' and is never allowed bers not cell and regretted his absence. On out of their sight. It is a box three feet long | the third Sabbath evening it met. Mr. Adtwenty-six inches in depth, and eighteen ams chair was still vacant. Many were surwide, covered with red morocco leather, and priced that he, who was formerly so prompt neatly sewed round the edges. There are 3 and punctual, should thus suddenly break 'japanned' boxes placed together, and then off. How did it happen? Press of business,

At San Francisco they exchanged their arising from the faithful observance of it."

ran of the Roanoke has in charge for safe keeping. This we understand will be deposited in the Sub-Treasury of New York, and drawn out as they want it. They bring an immense amount of bag- held at the Congregational Church in Burlington, loads over the Panama Railroad. They have fifteen boxes containing valuable presents for the President of the United States. ture of every description, some of which will | carnetly invited to attend and to join in the disof those presented by Captain Perry, made by Sharp himself. The one made by the Japanese is a decided improvement upon the gers from out of town. original, as pronounced by all who have seen

The improvement consists in cocking, priming and cutting off the cartridge at the same time. The original does not coek on putting down the guard, which cuts off the carsimile of the original. The fini h and work-the Eminesy received by the government at silks, brocatel, linen, crape, silk, pongress, bright mulatto i male slave of fifteen years other persons, official or private. This or. style and pattern. It would require an ex- write, sing, and play the plane. He proder is said to have been quite acceptable to perioneed any goods elerk to give the proper poset for her that he would have her of her numes to hundrels of articles which they mistress, (who is a widow.) She said she

The sixteen officers of lower rank attached by a loars, belonging to the Treasury. to the Embassy, who occupy staterooms, onjoy themselves very much the same as the Such an inducement too, as it must have been servants, except they don't eat as often to the girl to consent to be aild to him, be-Two Ambassadors, eighteen officers, fifty-two crants in all, a venty-two persons. One of the character in all, a venty-two persons. One of the character is an all, a venty-two persons. One of the character is an all, a venty-two persons. One of the character is an all as venty-two persons. These officers all mess in the wardroom, with | cross he was ready to pay the girl's mistress They are as polite, good natured, friendly people as are to be found in the world. Com-That New Flace. That new flag for the ing mand going out they invariably make tensively drank in their own country, al-

The two Ambassadors, Censor and Vice Governor, mess in the Flag officer's quart-

THE CENSUS OF 1860 .- The following excellent take off on the questions proposed to be asked by the takers of the census of 1860, Express and Cleveland Plaindealer. Without nity, we present it as we find it What is your age? Where were you born? Are you married, and if so, how do you like it? How many children have you, and do they sufficiently resemble you as to preclude cordial hospitality. your neighbors? Did you ever have the measles; and if so how many? Have you a twin brother several years older than yourself?

Do you read the New Testament regularly; What is your fighting weight? Do you use boughten tobacco? of her things were your'n and your things

Were you ever in the penitentiary? Are you troubled with the piles? How many empty bottles have you in the

Have you all of THAYER's speeches on th were her'n?

horse railroad? Are beans an article of regular diet in | brought forth in his life the best fruits of rour family, and if so, how does it go? or have the heaves?

without detection, left the ship after all was quiet at Boston wharf, and took his way unhindered towards the Queen's Canadian dominions.

The New York papers of that evening however, contain a despatch from the same place pronouncing the story a hoax, which originated with a man laboring under mania a potu.

The New York papers of that evening however, contain a despatch from the same place pronouncing the story a hoax, which originated with a man laboring under mania a potu.

THE JAPANESE EMBASSY .- The following | John Quincy Adams .- When John Quinparticulars in regard to the Embassy, we cy Adams was Minister to the Court of Holland, he joined a society of learned men w to met once in a week for mutual improve-"The principal object of the mission is to ment. Mr. Adams, though one of the the President of the United States. The orig- favorite; his linely-toned mind and delight-was adjourned to Sabbath evening. Mr. "The box continging these documents is Adams was not there. It was appointed on was Mr. Adams in his place, brilliant and The Embassy brings with it some $80,- delightful as ever. The members welcomed 600 cash, for the purpose of making pur- him back, and expressed their sorrow that chases. There are two boxes of $20,000 press of business, or duties of his office should coin has never been received in Japan. from all that he had felt and seen, he was till lately, except in a very depreciated value. convinced of the unspeakal le advantages

SABBATH SCHOOL CONVENTION. A Subbath School County Convention will be gage-over eighty tons-which four full car- commencing at 10 o'clock A. M. Tuesday, Jane 5th, and to continue two days. Teachers and friends of Sabbath Schools of all They have articles of their own manufac- denominations, from all parts of the County, are Arrangements will be made to entertain stran-

James M. Edgerton, N. Peck, Jr., Saur'l Hentington. N. G. Clark, John K. Gray. A. D. Barber, J. H. Wereester, E. A. Fuller, S. Beach. J. K. Converse, N. P. Fister. Calvin Pense. Burlington, May 12, 1860.

Rosnoke off Sarely Hook, ordering the ship manship are equal, if not superior, to the Concluded. The editor of the Rome (N. not to stop at N. York, but to proceed at original Sharp, or any other facurm over Y.) Satisal settled the slavery question ones to Norfolk—the purpose being to have Seen.

They have a large quantity of beautiful At the house where he stopped there was a being to have of fifteen years. well-es and the nims of its founders. The claim of opposition which so unexpectedly elamor of opposition which so unexpectedly elamor of opposition which so unexpectedly extended in the claim of the measurement of the meas when reading or writing They have any trees, and her mistress leved her, but if he quantity of books of every description, from would take her mistress along, she would the size of Webster's large dictionary, to follow. The editor subsequently related the One on Businesso-Kars, Chief Adviser to some of them illustrated in the most benuti- shaking her head, said that no persuasion of > DEATH OF S. G. GOODRICH, Esq.-Mr. S. His death was very sudden. He returned though they can 'worry down' a glass of day, and said he had been invited to visit Chiengo the next week, to be present at the meeting of the Republican Convention.

Mr. Goodrich's books have made his name numerous histories, the clever tales, have all been read by thousands. He began the "Parley" series in 1824 and has since written and prepared no less than dom," waich was published in two volumes last year. Mr. Goodrich was appointed by President Fillmore in, 1851 to the offer of U. S. Consul at Paris. In this position he made the possibility of their belonging to any of many friends by his kindly manners and his

the illustrated "History of the Animal King-

WE LEARN that a handsome addition has been made to the Library of the High School, recently, through the liberality of L. G. Bigglow, Esq., being a set of the Encyclopedia Americana, 13 vols. The work is a val-Were you and your wife worth any thing | nable one in itself, and will be much prized when married, and if not, what proportion by the scholars, as a token of the hearty aid which Mr. Bigelow is ever ready to give to any such laudable enterprise as the Union School Library.

OATHS AND PRAYERS .- In the latter years of his life General Jackson is said to have exhibited deep religious feeling, and to have piety. But at an earlier period he co-State whether you are blind, deaf, idiotic, with a general reverence for religion habite of profanity strengthened by his experience How many chickens have you, and are of soldier life, and the union of the two was they on foot or in the shell? Also, how an occasion of great embarrasement to many succedaneums? Also, how in the following incident, related Is there a strawberry mark on your left arm?

Which food do you prefer, rum or mixed drinks?

State how much pork, impending crisis, Dutch cheese, popular sovereignty, standard poetry, Gayetty paper, slave code, catnip, red finnel, Constitution and Union, old ink, perfumery, coal oil, liberty, hoop second just touched Terry, bowed and withdrew. But Benham examined Broderick with offensive care and particularity—thus prefacing the tragedy with a stinging insult. He has received his reward.

The report of the death of Townsend Harris, U. S. consul general to Japan is said to be entirely discredited by the government. It originated no doubt in the nothing of the absurdity of his carrying it with him to the Charleston Convention !-